

A. M. LYON THE WINNER

Secured the T. P. A. Horse and Trap for 28 Cents.

IT IS VALUED AT $350

The Lucky Number Was B 28—Great Interest Shown and Many Around
Headquarters Until After Midnight.

For the sum of 28 cents Mr. A. M. Lyon, Jr., of Lyon & Montague, last night captured the $350 trap raffled off by the Travelers' Protective Association. Mr. Lyon held No. B 28.

The committee in charge of the raffle was composed of Messrs. R. W. Spillman, William Jenkins, Jr., and L. O. Miller. These gentlemen held the raffle and the large number of the members of the T. P. A. It was after midnight before the result was ascertained.

The rooms were literally packed with eager ones awaiting their chances at the handsome big, which had been offered to the public for the purpose of raising funds by which a room can be endowed in the Memorial Hospital for such traveling men who may need the attention on account of accident or sickness at such an institution.

Through the suggestion of Mr. R. W. Spillman and his untiring efforts, with the assistance of the host of the members of the T. P. A., due to the success of this enterprise. The enthusiasm of those who interested themselves in the cause was to love of each individual in the noble thought for which this scheme was gotten up.

As early as 8 o'clock the holders of numbers began to assemble at the parlors and discuss their chances of winning and losing, while numbers of ladies and gentlemen gathered in front of the headquarters and looked admiringly on the beautiful horse and trap that was soon to become the property of possibly the holder of a chance which perhaps had cost but a few cents.

The committee in charge of the enterprise were on hand and gave every one present an opportunity to secure a chance.

While the crowd was busily engaged in buying the unold chances the judges were in session in Secretary Harwood's office checking over the lists of hundreds of names and numbers from the series that had been called in. The task was an immense one, for every ticket bearing the serial number of the class to which it belonged was called and checked, and in this process passed through the hands and under the close scrutiny of every one of the judges.

The crowd displayed their intense interest by their great patience in waiting in and about the rooms while this work was in progress.

Many series contained a number of unold chances, and these were eagerly bought until the judges sent word calling in the series. Then they pounced upon another and still another until the critical moment arrived for the real work of the evening.

Each series was then put in a ballot box and one number drawn, the one so drawn being entitled to a place. Numbers were drawn from the box until the entire number of series had been drawn from. These numbers were then placed in another box and a hush fell over the expectant crowd as the lucky bit of pasteboard was passed from judge to judge, and then Mr. Samuel Register by Mr. Lyon, Jr., who held No. B 28.

The judges were Messrs. Borden, Samuel Register, H. W. Rountree and C. V. Antin. The drawn in each class for a place were as follows:

New Lawyers.

Richmond appears to be an attractive field for lawyers, for despite the number already here others are coming from time to time. The latest addition to the local bar are Mr. W. T. Mooklar, formerly of King William county, who has just opened an office in Goshall Hall, and Mr. J. W. Gresham, who has announced that Mr. J. W. Gresham has begun the practice of law in this city. Mr. Shapiro is a Richmonder.

COLONEL ANDREWS IN A COLLISION

Engine Strikes His Private Car and Shakes Him Up Considerably.

Colonel A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, N. C., vice-president of the Southern Railway, and several other railway officials and employees were given a scare and a shake-up and severely bruised about 8 o'clock yesterday morning at Acorn, about four miles north of this city, the junction of the Seaboard Air Line and the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway, by a collision between Colonel Andrews' private car and a locomotive of the Seaboard. Colonel Andrews, Mr. W. H. Miller, Mr. S. B. Patterson, telegrapher to Colonel Andrews, and Dan Polk, a negro cook, who were aboard the car, were rudely jostled and more or less shaken up or injured.

Colonel Andrews himself suffered a bruise on his left knee and left foot. Mr. Patterson, his clerk, received a cut two inches long on the head and some painful bruises about the body. Dan Polk, the colored employee, was thrown forward through a glass door of the car and was painfully cut about the face, besides being painfully bruised. Mr. Miller was the only one of the party to escape without injury. The injured were brought to this city and treated by local physicians. Their injuries in no case being serious. Colonel Andrews was lying in his berth when the shock came and his head was thrown against the framework of the coach.

The engine was being shifted and the coach was standing on the siding waiting to be brought to this city when in some way the locomotive and the private car were backed upon the track and into the private car with considerable force.

Colonel Andrews was on his way here to attend the hearings before the Corporation Commission, but relinquished that duty to go to the city. He was in the day, he and his party returned to Raleigh. A telegram last night stated that neither he nor any of his party is much the worse for their experience.

MR. CUDLIPP DEAD
Widely-Known Telegraph Operator
Has Sent His Last Message.

A private telegram received in this city last night announced that Mr. Frederick D. Cudlipp, one of the oldest and best known telegraphers in the South, had died suddenly at 11:30 P. M. in Wilmington, where he was employed as superintendent of telegraph for the Atlantic Coast Line Railway. The vital spark left the veteran operator's body with startling suddenness, coming without warning or anything seriously portending the end of his career. He had been complaining slightly for several days, but his condition was not regarded as at all serious. Mr. Cudlipp was about 64 years old. He is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. Cudlipp and a daughter being in Iowa on a visit to relatives when the sad summons home reached them.

Colonel Cudlipp was up to about a year and a half ago chief operator of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city. A position he had held for about twenty-five years. He was one of the finest telegraphers and best electricians in the South, and was widely known by the many who had the honor of having him as a co-worker. He was a man of the olden type in the service. Few men were more generally esteemed by their associates and those who knew them. The general opinion is that he was a man of many admirable characteristics and of qualities that endear men to each other. He was highly valued both by the Western Union and by the Coast Line.

Mr. W. J. Francis, of this city, a brother-in-law of the deceased, will leave early this morning for Wilmington. While the funeral and burial arrangements have not been announced, it is expected that the body will be brought to this city for interment.

Mrs. Caroline Schwalm.

Mrs. Caroline Schwalm, wife of Mr. George Schwalm, died at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at her residence, No. 618 Park Avenue, after an illness of about a week. She leaves behind her husband, six children, as follows: Messrs. Christian, George and Charles Schwalm, Mrs. Mary Stetter and Mrs. Amelia Stetter, of Virginia, Nebraska, and Mrs. Strauss, of this city.

The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from St. John's German Lutheran Church.

The Storm Locally.

Meagre information attainable with a crippled wire service indicates that a serious storm is doing a good deal of damage along the coast of North Carolina and Virginia, and that it is now moving inland. Wires were reported as not working from between the city and Norfolk, but though the communication was resumed late this morning it was rather uncertain. The indications are that some of the wires are down. The extent and severity of the storm are not known. Several days ago storm warnings were sent out from Washington for the benefit of mariners along the south Atlantic coast, and this is, no doubt, the realization of that forecast.

NEW GUNS FOR TROOPS

SUITS AGAINST MILITARY

The Military, Under the Constitution,
Given a Very Limited Scope in Colorado—Matter to Be Brought Before Supreme Court.

(By Associated Press.)
CRIPPLE CREEK, CO., Sept. 15.—A consignment of 1,000 Krag-Jorgensen rifles from the United States government arrived in camp to-day and were immediately distributed among the troops on duty here. Besides the new rifles, 60,000 rounds of ammunition were also received. This is the first new equipment to be sent to Colorado under the Dick bill.

A meeting of county officials was held to-day for the purpose of trying to develop means for ascertaining just how far the military authorities can go in the arrest of citizens without warrants of law. At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that no action so far had been decided upon. It is semi-officially given out that some of the best attorneys in the United States are to be employed to get the matter quickly before the United States Supreme Court.

SUITS FOR MILITARY ARREST.

County Commissioner Patrick J. Lynch and Justice of the Peace W. P. Kelly, who were arrested by the military last night and subsequently released, to-night announced their determination to bring civil suits for $100,000 damages for false imprisonment against Governor Peabody, General Bell and Chase and others connected with their arrest, whom they will sue for conspiracy. Lynch and Kelly were charged with having criticized acts of the militia and counseled miners not to return. Former Attorney General Eugene Engley, counsel for four of the military guard houses, and Attorney John H. Murphy, of the Western Federation of Miners, consulted together to-day with reference to protection of the union miners from alleged aggressions of the militia. After the conference Mr. Murphy said:

"There is nothing in the Constitution of this State which can uphold the proceedings of the militia since they have come into the district. Under the Constitution of the State the State is given a very limited scope. Even now General Bell is amenable to the civil law for his actions."

ARE CALLED TO COLORS

Three Divisions Who Retired from Army in Three Years.

NO IMPORTANT STEP NOW

Nothing at this Critical Juncture, Pending the Return of Prince Ferdinand, and Reply from Powers to Bulgaria's Note.

(By Associated Press.)
SOFIA, BULGARIA, Sept. 15.—No important step is likely to be taken at the present critical juncture, pending the return to the capital of Prince Ferdinand and a reply from the powers or some intimation from them in response to Bulgaria's note.

The air here is filled with rumors of mobilization. It is alleged that the first three divisions of the army, having their centers at Philippopolis, Silvae and Sofia have been called out. In official circles, it is declared, however, that the only step actually decided upon is summoning to colors of the first three divisions who retired from the army during the last three years. This will give a force of some 10,000 men who will be chiefly employed in strengthening the troops along the frontier.

ORIGIN OF INSURRECTION
FROM BULGARIA'S VIEW

(By Associated Press.)
SOFIA, Sept. 15.—According to notes of the Turkish representatives here, in which it was alleged that the insurrection in Macedonia was the work of Bulgarian bands, who had crossed the frontier, the Bulgarian government, on Saturday last, replied, refuted the accusations, reviewed the history of the insurrection and claimed that the outbreak was the direct result of the existing form of government in Macedonia, which had forced the youth of the country to flee abroad and gradually organize the insurrection. Bulgaria also declined to accept responsibility for the events at Adrianople, which, it is declared, are due to the persecution of the Bulgarian population. Finally, Bulgaria stated that the Turkish government was prolonging a situation which was perilous to the principle of self-determination, and that there was danger of a catastrophe disastrous to both countries.

Prince Ferdinand returns here to-morrow. The revolutionary headquarters have delayed news of the terrible situation at Lozengrad. The whole district is filled with Turkish and Albanian troops and Bash-Bazouks. Twelve villages have been burned and over 100 hundred families have been massacred. Many of the women and girls captured have been sent to various harems. About four hundred widows and orphans have arrived at the frontier village of Tekendje from Lozengrad.

All the Bulgarian prisoners in the town jail at Lozengrad have been killed by Musselman prisoners, aided by the prison guards.

REPRESENTATIONS AS TO TURKISH EXCESSES

(By Associated Press.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15.—The Russian and Austrian embassies have made serious representations to the Porte regarding the excesses of the Turkish troops, especially the Albanians, in the villages of Macedonia. The Turkish government has taken this last step in asking the Powers to intervene. Otherwise, Bulgaria must take measures for her own protection."

The cavalry regiment which was stopped while en route, owing to a dispute over the well-known cruelty of Kurds, has surreptitiously left Constantinople for Adrianople, traveling by road.
